

CARL G. KLEHM

Posted on 2018, March 23rd by The Peony Society

For images please visit the website.

A well-known peony of long standing dating to the mid 1980's, but never formally registered. Full double rose type in a pleasing shade of cream with a potential for candy-streaking that varies with each bloom. Strong stems, mature height 32 inches (81cm). Highly prized in Holland as a superior cut flower. Named for the hybridizer's father, this handsome variety is boldly attractive and honors his memory very well.